2. It was readily apparent that the DOD visitors were impressed with the ISINGLASS presentation and depth of work accomplished on a broad front by [REDACTED]. The hardware display, films, charts, and graphs on various tests and results were particularly well received. Harry Davis privately commented he had no idea that so much meaningful work had been accomplished by both [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. He also was heard to say that he was worried about the lack of funds in FY'67 and '68 for this type of an effort.
